^aViolent crime was defined as actions resulting in convictions for homicide, assault, robbery, arson, any sexual offense, illegal threats, or intimidation.

^bGeneral population controls were matched by age (birth year) and sex, and the association was adjusted by income (lowest vs middle and highest tertiles), marital status (single vs nonsingle), and immigrant status (individual or at least 1 parent born outside of Sweden). Unaffected full-sibling controls were not matched, but the comparison was adjusted for age, sex, income, and marital status.
